Party Leaders To Appeal for Votes Tonight

Eisenhower, Nixon And Stevenson to Make Final Pleas

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP)—The White House said today it was "ridiculous" for Adlai E. Stevenson to accuse President Eisenhower of approving Republican campaign material that Stevenson said parallels Communist propaganda.

James C. Hagerly, Mr. Eisenhower's press secretary, returned Stevenson's fire as the 20th century's most remarkable off-year election campaign roared to a close.

Tuesday is election day. By Tuesday night the returns will begin to show what success Mr. Eisenhower had in his 11th-hour bid to pull a GOP victory out of what seemed a few days ago to be probable defeat.

Democrats have accused the Republicans of resorting to "desperate" mud-slinging in the whirlwind campaign. Stevenson hung the charge directly on Mr. Eisenhower Saturday night, asserting that the President had condoned statements by GOP speakers, notably Vice President Richard M. Nixon, that past Democratic administrations achieved prosperity only through war. Stevenson said this had been standard Communist propaganda for years.

The massive Republican effort was compressed within the final 10 days of the campaign. It came too late for results, it was said, to be sensed by pollsters and pulse takers. In fact, James A. Farley, former Democratic national chairman and an old political pro, maintains that events in the final two weeks of a campaign change few if any votes.

Aside from this, however, the campaign consensus has been that the 1954 Democratic tide was sufficient to shift the House and, perhaps, the Senate, to Democratic control when the 84th Congress meets next January.

Party leaders will be on the air tonight in traditional appeals for eligible citizens to vote.

Final Appeals
Republican: Mr. Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon, CBS Television 9 to 9:30 p. m., EST. Democratic: Adlai E. Stevenson, 1952 presidential nominee, CBS radio 10:15 to 10:30 p. m., EST.

The great political debate began to quiet today after a Sunday of dispute between anxious partisans. In Denver Sunday night, Vice President Nixon accused Stevenson of making an "hysterical, scurrilous and vicious" attack on Mr. Eisenhower. He announced he would devote a major portion of his speech tonight to countering Stevenson's "vicious charges" with "facts." In a New York address Saturday night, Stevenson said the President had "thoughtlessly" affirmed "Communist propaganda" by asserting that U. S. prosperity in the past has stemmed from war. Democratic National Committee Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell and Republican National Committee Chairman Leonard W. Hall had at each other in Washington Sunday night.

No Appointees Indicted
Hall saluted the "honesty, decency and integrity" of the Eisenhower administration. He said not one Eisenhower appointee had been indicted or convicted of crime. "You've had some scandals," Mitchell snapped. "There have been no indictments or convictions, of

Jaycees to Help Get Out the Vote

In observance of a national Junior Chamber of Commerce project, the local Jaycees will assist in getting out the vote during tomorrow's election.

Transportation will be available for voters who have no way to get to the polls during the hours of 9 a. m. till noon and 1 p. m. until 4 p. m. Anyone desiring transportation to their polling place can obtain it by calling 303, the Williams Insurance Agency, and a Jaycee car will be available.

A car carrying a loudspeaker may also be used to tour the streets and urge Harrisburg residents to use their privilege of voting.

Party Rallies End Campaign In Saline County

Polls Will Open 6 a. m., Close 5 p. m. Tomorrow

The campaign oratory was over in Saline county today and party workers were making last-minute arrangements for the election itself, which will be tomorrow. The polls will open at 6 a. m., close at 5 p. m., and tabulators will be busy far into the night. The Daily Register office will be open adding up the county vote as it comes in and will furnish the figures to both WSIL-TV and WEBQ, which will give their listeners coverage of the returns as they come in.

Saline county voters will mark their ballots for U. S. Senator, state treasurer, state superintendent of public instruction, University of Illinois trustees, congressman, state senator, state representatives, county clerk, county judge, county treasurer, sheriff and county superintendent of schools.

Cannot Discard Blue Ballot
In addition they will receive what has been called the Blue Ballot, which must be returned to the election judge after balloting. It cannot be discarded in the booth. This ballot contains referendums on reappointment, on extending the term of state treasurer, and a canal-waterways amendment.

Harrisburg to own ship voting places will be: Harrisburg 1—Harrisburg city hall. 2—Humm Motor Co. 3—Cummins building. 4—A. Franks' building. 5—County highway garage, Dorrisville. 6—Egyptian Trim Shop, Route 45 south of Harrisburg. 7—Mugge-Hall building (old Peabody 43). 8—Muddy school. 9—Gaskins City town house. 10—Leo Richmond garage. 11—Soward's motorcycle shop. 12—Dorris Heights school.

County Judge Ralph Chissoer tonight will give instructions to election judges and clerks at the court house at 7:30.

Democratic Rally
Russell B. Long, U. S. Senator from Louisiana, sparked the Democratic party's last big rally, being featured speaker on two occasions Saturday night in Eldorado.

A standing room only crowd heard Sen. Long speak at the Eldorado city hall, the program getting underway at 7:30.

Register to Furnish Usual Election Night Returns

The Daily Register will provide its usual complete election return service Tuesday night—a practice of the past 30 years or more. Sample ballots have been placed in the hands of an election judge or clerk in each of the 34 precincts in Saline county, and payment is made by The Register to the person delivering this ballot to The Register with the complete returns marked on it.

In order to speed the election results to those particularly interested in the county and district races, the returns as they are compiled in The Register office will be made available to radio station WEBQ and to television station WSIL for their special election night broadcasts.

The radio station and the television station will supplement these county returns with district, state and national returns from their teletype wires.

As the county returns start coming in, the results will be compared with the same precincts in the county election of four years ago, at which time the same offices were being filled as at the current election.

Tabulated returns from each of the precincts for all offices will be published in The Daily Register Wednesday.

Predict 3.5 To 4 Million Votes in Illinois

Douglas and Meek Battle Through Closing of Campaign

CHICAGO (UP)—Democratic Sen. Paul H. Douglas and his Republican opponent, Joseph T. Meek, battled through the closing hours of the Illinois campaign today as observers predicted a turnout of 3 1/2 to 4 million voters in Tuesday's election.

The Weather Bureau predicted that election day will be fair but cold with the temperature staying below freezing daylong in the northern part of the state and below 40 in the south portion.

Estimates of the number of ballots expected to be cast were rising in view of the last minute campaign spurt staged by the Republicans, led by President Eisenhower.

Meek and Douglas were slugging it out to the final gong. Douglas will wind up his campaign tonight, as he did his successful 1948 campaign when he first won a seat in the Senate, with a torchlight parade at Joliet.

Meek visited workers at the Western Electric Co. plant at noon today.

Both men will make 11th hour appeals for votes over television.

The election also includes:

State Treasurer: Democrat David F. Mallett; Republican Warren Wright.

Remap Also an Issue

Superintendent of Public Instruction: Incumbent Republican Vernon Nickell; Democrat Mark A. Peterman.

Twenty-five congressmen.

Three University of Illinois trustees.

A new state house of representatives.

A state senator from each odd-numbered district.

Hundreds of county and local officials.

Interest also will focus on a proposition to reapportion that state's legislative districts to give Cook county control of one House and downstate control of the other.

Another proposition would make the state treasurer's term for four years, instead of two, while a third proposition would permit the state to build a road over the route of the ancient and unused Illinois-Michigan Canal.

Douglas sent telegrams Sunday to the U. S. attorneys in Chicago, Springfield and East St. Louis asking them to "take precautions to insure correct count and procedures in all counties in your districts."

In his Western Electric appearance, Meek charged Douglas with making huge campaign expenditures and said "Money that big doesn't come from nickel and dime contributors."

Gov. William G. Stratton said he expects Meek to win by 250,000 votes and GOP State Chairman Edward F. Moore predicted a Meek plurality of "more than 200,000."

Democratic National Committee Chairman Jacob M. Arvey said Douglas would win by 100,000, while Democratic Cook county chairman predicted the senator would retain his seat by 300,000 votes.

Douglas said he wanted to insure there would be no "slow counts" such as "in 1952 when the county clerk of Lake county held the ballots in his vault . . . for 19 days" before releasing them for certification.

Vote Blue Ballot Tomorrow

An Editorial

Voters going to the polls tomorrow will be given two ballots—the regular ballot for electing state, district and local officers, and a blue ballot.

The blue ballot contains three constitutional propositions.

It must be returned to the judge of the election with your regular ballot. The judge is required under law to demand that the ballot be returned. It must not be thrown to the floor or left in the booth, as has been done in the past.

We recommend that the ballot be voted.

We recommend further that you vote "no" on the first proposition—that of redistricting the state and giving a majority in one house of the General Assembly to Cook county.

We recommend that you vote "yes" on the two other propositions on the blue ballot.

Regardless of your choice on the propositions, however, the blue ballot should be voted and returned to the election judge in your precinct.

Army Investigates Charges Officer Ordered Brutal Treatment of Trainees

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UP)—The Army conducted a high level investigation today into charges that a second lieutenant, a decorated Korean War veteran, ordered "harassing and humiliating treatment" of his trainees.

The officer, 2nd Lt. Charles C. Anderson, of Honolulu, T. H., and St. Louis, Mo., was accused by trainees of having one soldier strung up by his heels, forcing two others to take "sand baths" to teach them the necessity of cleanliness and another to take physical exercises until exhausted.

Nine soldiers, who were said to have witnessed the alleged disciplinary measures, were recalled to testify at the investigation of the officer, who was under house arrest and confined to his quarters at nearby Camp Gordon.

Three of the nine brought the complaints to the attention of the Army.

Anderson, a holder of two battle stars for his Korean services, declined to comment further than "I will have something to say when the trial begins."

Served as Sergeant

Brig. Gen. Francis E. Howard, commanding general of Camp Gordon, will "determine appropriate action," including a court martial "if warranted," 3rd Army headquarters at Ft. McPherson in Atlanta said.

An announcement from 3rd Army headquarters said two trainees were reported to have scuffled with a cadet of the permanent training staff and that one of them wielded a stick in the fracas.

Anderson was accused of ordering the stick wielder "bound by his ankles with a rope," which was thrown over the limb of a tree "thus suspending the trainee upside down."

The lieutenant reportedly told the soldier then to "beat the trunk of the tree if he wanted to beat anything," the charges stated.

The officer, who served as a master sergeant in Korea, another time "forced two trainees to take a sand bath to emphasize the necessity of frequent bathing," the charges read.

Pacific Bids 'Aloha' to B-29

HONOLULU (UP)—The Pacific bids "aloha" today to the B-29 "Superfortress," the bomber that conquered the Pacific skies and inflicted greater damage to the enemy than any aircraft in history even before it dropped the first A-bombs.

The Boeing heavy bombers that 10 years ago was blasting a path of ruin across Japan is now obsolete, a has-been as a warplane.

Just as it replaced the Boeing B17 in the later stages of World War II, it is being shoved into retirement by the Boeing B47 Stratojet.

Oklahoma Man Jailed Here After Auto Hits Power Pole on Rt. 45
Robert S. Lewis, 38, of Oklahoma City, was jailed last night by Sheriff Paul Spangler after his auto hit a power pole on Route 45 near Liberty, cutting off power to people in that vicinity.

The Lewis car overturned and Lewis was treated for minor injuries by a local physician. He was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol and illegal transportation of liquor in informations filed today in county court.

Saturday Bernard Koerber was arrested by State Police Sgt. C. Lendall Rockwell on charges of driving while under the influence of alcohol in Raleigh. Koerber pleaded innocent and his bond was set at $500.

Harry Jennings Rites Tuesday at 3 p. m.
Funeral services for Harry Jennings, former resident of Harrisburg who died Friday at the home of a cousin, Ebbon Powell, on Eldorado RFD 2, have been changed from 2 p. m. to 3 p. m. in the chapel of the Harrisburg funeral home.

Rev. Roy Reynolds will officiate, and burial will be in Sunset Hill.

Halloween Observed Quietly, Police Report
Halloween was observed quietly in Harrisburg, Chief of Police Loren Travelstead said today, with the police force receiving no calls of pranks.

The American Legion George Hart post's annual celebration was held uptown Saturday night with the square being roped off for the occasion.

The attendance was down a bit because of cold weather but numerous prizes donated by Harrisburg business and professional men, were given out to the masqueraders.

Big Three to Draft Rejection To Soviet Note

Will Bar Conference On Germany Until New Pact Ratified

WASHINGTON (UP)—The United States, Britain and France will meet in London shortly to draft formal notes rejecting Russia's call for an early Big Four conference on Germany, informed sources said today.

The drafting session may get underway this week with a team of Big Three experts. The aim will be to bar Big Four talks until after the new Allied agreements on Germany have been ratified.

It was understood the Big Three will be careful not to rule out a possible future meeting with the Russians after the German agreements have gone into effect and given the Allies a stronger bargaining position.

Harold E. Stassen, foreign aid administrator just back from a 10-day tour of Europe, said in an interview that the signing of the agreements has produced a "marked change" in European public opinion. He said he found more "friendliness" and "better understanding" for the United States than in a long time.

France cleared the way for the London drafting session by assuring the United States that it will not press for a conference with Russia before the ratification process has been completed. This is not expected until early next year at the earliest.

President Eisenhower announced Saturday that the administration will submit the agreements on Germany to the Senate at its special session next week on the censure of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy. The idea is to clear the way for Senate approval of certain key provisions when the new full session opens in January.

Russia's recent proposal for big power talks on unification of Germany, now divided into free and Communist areas, has been viewed generally by Western diplomats as a poorly concealed effort to wreck the plan to rearm Western Germany and restore its sovereignty.

American officials have said they are sure Russia never would agree to free all German elections which the West would demand as the first condition toward a unified Germany.

W. J. Youngs, 82, Father of Otis Youngs, Dies

W. J. Youngs, former shoe repairman in Harrisburg, died Sunday at 8 p. m. at his home in Big Sandy, Tenn., where he had lived for the past year.

He was born in Groves county, Ky., in 1872 to William and Eliza Youngs and would have been 83 the fourth of this month.

His first wife died in 1947 and about a year ago he married Cora Wiseman of Big Sandy, Tenn.

He leaves the following children: Otis Youngs of Harrisburg; Mrs. Ova Youngs, Ebb Youngs and Mrs. Anna Biddle, all of Anna, Ill.; Heskell and Eskel, both of Chicago; Mrs. Erle Holton, Paducah, Ky.; and Mrs. Willie Lee Monroe, Adrian, Mich.; 19 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

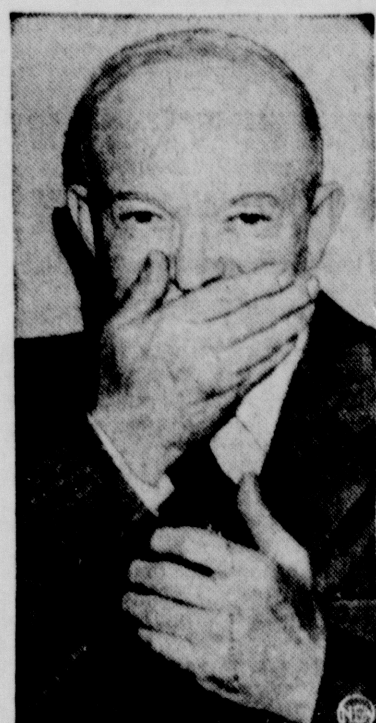

The funeral will be Tuesday at 1 p. m. in the chapel of the Harrisburg funeral home. Rev. John Henshaw, will officiate, and burial will be in Sunset Hill cemetery.

Senate Group to Ask Funds to Probe Power Monopoly

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Senate Anti-Monopoly subcommittee, which has been looking into the controversial Dixon-Yates contract, is planning to ask Congress for one million dollars to finance that investigation and others.

Chairman William Langer (R-N.D.) and Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) issued a joint statement saying they will ask for the funds when the 84th Congress meets next January. Earlier they had indicated they might make the bid for funds at the Nov. 8 special session of the Senate.

The subcommittee has been holding hearings on the Dixon-Yates contract and on other questions relating to monopoly in the power field. The two senators said testimony already received indicates "grave doubt as to the effectiveness" of the federal law regulating utility holding companies.

MMMPH!—Eyes brimming with merriment, President Eisenhower stifles a "too loud" laugh in response to a joke during the Chief Executive's stop at Wilmington, Del., on his four-state, last-minute "get out the vote" appeal before the elections.

Inoculate Third Grade Children At Dorrisville

Action Taken After Child's Illness Diagnosed as Polio

A misunderstanding has arisen regarding use of gamma globulin for polio, Dr. James H. Wells, health officer of the Egyptian Health department, stated today.

Dr. Wells explained its use as the third grade pupils at Dorrisville school were given the opportunity of receiving inoculations of gamma globulin following the diagnosis that one of the pupils is suffering from polio. She is Becky Gibbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gibbs, who is in a hospital at East St. Louis.

Dr. Wells said that the serum is furnished by the Red Cross under the rules and regulations of the national committee on distribution of the serum and added:

"Gamma globulin is not a preventive against polio. It is given to close contacts of the patient to lessen the danger of the contacts having polio in a short period of time. In case of a school child it is advisable for the children in the room of the affected child, and not all children, to be given the serum. Also, it is advisable for household contacts to be inoculated."

"Only in very rare instances, and in these particular instances where there is an epidemic, larger groups are inoculated with the serum."

"Again I wish to stress that the gamma globulin is not to prevent polio, that the prevention, we hope, will come from a new vaccine now being produced and undergoing experimentation."

Bruse Phillips, Dorrisville school principal, said that parents are being given the opportunity of having their third grade children inoculated and that a number already have taken advantage of the opportunity.

Dr. Wells pointed out that the serum for these Dorrisville third graders only can be obtained upon prescription free of charge at the Lightner hospital. The serum will be administered by the physician of the person's choice with the physician receiving his fee for this service.

Two Youths Found Dead in Truck Of Carbon Monoxide

RUSHVILLE, Ill. (UP)—Two Camden township youths were found dead in a truck cab early today, apparently victims of carbon monoxide gas.

The dead boys were James L. Avery Jr., 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Avery, and Cyrus Elwood Johnson, also 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson.

The youths were found dead in a truck in the garage of Avery's half-brother, Andy Avery, in Rushville, by the latter's wife about 2 a. m. when she went to get the truck to carry gasoline to her husband who had run out of gas in the family car.

Officials said the youths apparently went to the garage to use the truck heater to warm themselves.

Huge Plane is Missing with 42 Persons

Four Women and Five Children Among Passengers

NEW YORK (UP)—More than 200 planes and 25 surface ships criss-crossed a 120-mile strip of cloud-spattered Atlantic Ocean from here to the Azores today for a Navy transport plane presumed to have gone down with 42 persons aboard.

The Navy Super-Constellation, with four women and five children among its 21 passengers, has been unreported since 11 p. m. Saturday, 90 minutes after it took off from Patuxent, Md., for the Azores and Africa. Its fuel would have been exhausted at 10 a. m. Sunday.

In one of the greatest air-sea searches in history, Navy, Coast Guard and Air Force planes soared above Navy and Coast Guard ships seeking a sign of the giant plane or its emergency life rafts. Crews of commercial ships and planes joined in the search.

The aircraft carrier Leyte and the escort carrier Kula Gulf sent their planes aloft in the search. Air Force B29's from Prestwick, Scotland, joined Coast Guard search planes from Argentina, Nfld., Bermuda and U. S. bases.

Search Through Night

The plane left Patuxent, Md., at 9:30 p. m. EST Saturday for North Africa. It was last heard from when it made its routine hourly report 90 minutes later—at 11 p. m. At that time it was some 480 miles east of Baltimore. It had enough gas to remain aloft until 10 a. m. Sunday.

Many of the persons aboard were returning to duty after leaves or were reporting overseas on new assignments. About half of the 21-man crew was to have debarked in the Azores to pick up another plane.

Throughout the night, planes carrying special radar devices for night-time search roared through the skies over the Atlantic, while Navy surface craft criss-crossed the area below. Commercial ships in the area also joined in the search, which covered 240,000 square miles of ocean.

The last reported position of the plane was near an area of stormy seas where a destroyer rammed a submarine and two other destroyers collided early Sunday. All of the ships proceeded to port under their own power.

Vice Adm. Laurence T. Dubose of the Eastern Sea Frontier was in operational command of the search. Capt. Ray Needham, commander of naval air bases in the First Naval District here, was named rescue commander.

Craft From Europe
All available Navy ships and planes in the continental area of Europe moved into the search pattern today. On this side of the Atlantic, patrol planes and ships moved out from widely scattered coast guard and navy bases in Argentina, Nfld., Norfolk, Va., Bermuda, Patuxent, New York, Elizabeth, N. J., New York, Boston and Quonset Point, R. I.

Poor visibility was reported over the European half of the 2,000-mile stretch of ocean comprising the search area. But forecasters said conditions were improving.

Navy sources here said super-constellations normally carried up to 16 life rafts capable of carrying 16 persons each. Standard equipment aboard also includes a Mae West life preserver and a survival suit for each person.

AROUND SPRINGFIELD

Republican Top Brass in Illinois Warn County Chairmen to 'Get Out the Vote'

By DON E. CHAMBERLAIN
SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (Special) — The top brass of the Illinois Republican party has put its shoulder to the wheel for a terrific "get-out-the-vote" drive in the state's election stretch-run. Headed by Gov. William G. Stratton, state officers have warned county chairmen and state employees that if the state ticket loses there will be "an accounting."

Stratton has called for the election of Joseph T. Meek, Western Springs, by a 250,000 plurality. He warned Republican county chairmen at a meeting here last week if they can't present the Republican cause sufficiently in the final days of the campaign to win victory, to "step aside and let someone else do it."

His talk followed spirited speeches by Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter, East Moline, State Auditor Orville Hodge, Granite City, and Atty. Gen. Latham Castle, Sandwich. Eighty-one county chairmen, including Cook County Chairman Edward F. Moore, Chicago, attended the meeting. Stratton told the chairmen that if they don't do a better job next Tuesday "they don't deserve to be county chairmen."

All the topflight leaders of the GOP organization attended the meeting and each had a word to say. Carpenter said "this meeting is a show-down. I want a report back from each county chairman as to my employees." Hodge said, "this has been a dull campaign. Let's give 'em hell. My employees are instructed to report to their precinct committeemen and county chairmen."

"If Joe Meek doesn't win by a quarter of a million I don't deserve to be your governor and you should not expect to be county chairmen," said Stratton. "We are going to win this election in the last two weeks. We will show what the Democrats stand for. Go home and keep them on the run."

Vernon L. Nickell, Champaign, seeking re-election to the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction, feels that the GOP effort should be concentrated in northern Illinois, where, he pointed out, "Democrats have few candidates for county offices and Republican candidates for the general assembly have little opposition," adding "we've got to get that vote out in the Fox River section."

"The downstate Republican campaign is virtually completed," Nickell said. "The first two weeks of the campaign fuzzed up, then levelled off. I am sure of myself and Warren Wright, Park Ridge, running for state treasurer, but if we are going to send Joe Meek to Washington we have got to get out the vote. People say they hear Wright and myself will win but they are not so sure about Meek."

Appearance of Benjamin O. Cooper, East St. Louis, former Democrat state Auditor of Public Accounts, at downstate campaign rallies, has given rise to reports he is being groomed for a Democrat state office nomination in 1956. This is partly confirmed by his introduction at a recent Springfield rally as "a candidate for state office in 1956" by Peter Rossiter, Sangamon county Democratic chairman.

Number of persons on Illinois relief rolls for August was up 30,656 to 269,491, as compared with the same month last year, according to the August compilation of the State Public Aid Commission. Expenditures totaled $11,571,507 for the five public programs as compared to $10,614,174 for August last year. Public assistance for August was $2,726,739, up $913,135 over August, 1953.

Woman's Club Meets With Mrs. Kenneth Patterson

The Raleigh Woman's club met Thursday with Mrs. Kenneth Patterson, near Galatia, with 12 members present and 14 visitors. A potluck was enjoyed at noon.

Each one answered roll call by Stella Smith by giving a Bible verse and there was group singing. Scripture reading was given by Mrs. Sronce and prayer was led by Mrs. Lilly Stricklin.

Two trios composed of Mrs. Ivy Dilbeck, Mrs. Elsie Hale and Mrs. Tessie Carlile and Mrs. Stella Trehey, Susie Patterson and Tessie Carlile, sang; there was a reading by Mrs. Stella Trehey and a poem by Mrs. Elsie Hale.

Each one present presented the hostess, Mrs. Patterson, with tea towels and gifts and a new member, Mrs. Ruth Vineyard, was welcomed into the club.

After the meeting adjourned the shock of corn and pumpkins were removed from the dining room and the Halloween spooks passed the door. Pictures were made and prizes were won by Mrs. Ruth Easley, Blanche Spurlock, Lilly Cable and Stella Trehey.

Members present were Tessie Carlile, Lilly Cable, Ruth Barton, Susie Patterson, Mrs. Sronce, Zona Pemberton, Ivy Dilbeck, Blanche Spurlock, Lilly Stricklin, Stella Smith, Nova Rittenberry and Elsie Hale. Visitors were Mrs. and Mrs. O. G. Thomas, Mrs. Mary Harper, Mrs. Stella Trehey, Hester Kittinger, Mrs. Ruth Vineyard, Mrs. Ruth Easley, Miss Janet Kornegay, Ransom Pemberton, Henry Barton, C. C. Carlile, W. E. Smith, Kenneth Patterson and Douglas Vineyard.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Thompson at Johnston City Thursday, Nov. 18, with potluck at noon.

Surgeons now have their scalpels both sharp and sterile, thanks to a new aluminum foil package. Each scalpel is hermetically sealed in a foil package that can be opened by pulling away two tabs that expose the blade to instant use. The sealed packet is sterilized by exposure to dry heat.

Go FORWARD with

Kenneth J. GRAY for CONGRESS

Election November 2nd, 1954.

The voters of the 25th Congressional District will make an important decision . . . to stand still for another 2 years, or GO FORWARD, by electing an ACTIVE Congressman who will fight for the things we so badly need. Kenneth J. Gray is pledged to help return Southern Illinois to an era of PROGRESS and Prosperity. He is a vigorous young man who is willing to roll up his sleeves and go to work to put Southern Illinois back on the map. The following are just a few of the things he will fight for:

J O B S

His greatest concern is the critical Unemployment Situation. He will fight to put our 30,000 idle workers back to work. He helped expand and consolidate two dress factories now located in West Frankfort employing over 250 people at a payroll of over one-half million dollars annually. Here is what the President of the Streamline Garment factory had to say about Kenneth J. Gray: "If it were not for Kenneth Gray, we would not be in West Frankfort today."

He has served on numerous Chamber of Commerce committees, seeking industry and he knows how to talk to industries who are on the move. He pledges if elected, to work 100% with Southern Illinois Inc., in this task. HE DID IT FOR WEST FRANKFORT. HE CAN DO IT FOR YOU. THE PEOPLE WANT PAY CHECKS INSTEAD OF PROMISES.

ADEQUATE WATER SUPPLY

Completion of Devil's Kitchen Dam and Rend Lake are musts on Gray's program if elected to Congress. Gray has the pledged support of many U. S. Senators and Congressmen with whom he is personally acquainted, that if he is elected, they will help him put the money bills through Congress to complete these two projects immediately. Gray says these two projects must be completed to insure an adequate water supply not only for human consumption but also as an inducement for industry to locate in Southern Illinois, thereby, helping alleviate the critical unemployment situation.

Tax Relief

Gray will fight to lower personal income taxes by raising the exemptions from $600.00 to $800.00 in contrast to his opponent who voted AGAINST lowering personal income taxes in the last session of Congress. Gray believes for the Country to be prosperous, the working man, small businessman, and farmers must be prosperous. He believes by giving tax relief to the lower income bracket tax payers, it will stimulate the entire economy by adding more purchasing power.

Square Deal For Farmers

Kenneth Gray was raised on a farm and knows the problems of the farmer. He promises a SQUARE DEAL for the farmer if he is elected to Congress. He pledges 100% support to REA, Rural Telephone and Related Programs, in contrast to the present Congressman, who the official Congressional record shows has voted against REA 96% of the time during his 14 years in Congress. Gray says it's time to look forward instead of backwards when dealing with legislation for the farmer.

PROTECT THE RIGHTS OF VETERANS

Gray spent 36 months in Service during World War II with two years combat service in North Africa and Italy, and he believes he is in a position to speak for the interest of the Veteran. He says the present administration is using the economy axe on the rights of our veterans. He will fight to protect the just rights of our veterans, particularly the disabled veterans and dependents. He will fight to expand the Marion Veterans Hospital to include at least 200 beds instead of the present 150 in CONTRAST to the present Congressman who in the last session of Congress, voted AGAINST Medical and Hospital care at a time when there were 2300 beds vacant for lack of funds. It's high time to send a VETERAN to Congress to represent the thousands of veterans in this district. Gray has been very active in Veterans Organizations since his discharge from Service. In 1948-49 he was Commander of the Earl Cowan post No. 389 in West Frankfort. In the fall of 1949 he was elected Senior Vice-Commander of the 25th district of the American Legion, serving under 25th district Commander Ed Driemeyer, immediate past State Department Commander of the Legion. He has served in various capacities in his local post. He is also a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 3889, 40-8 and the Egyptian Past Commanders Club. Gray has commanded a firing squad that has conducted 188 Military Funerals for Veterans killed in overseas action, or have died at home. The distance is never too far to travel for this squad who are always ready on a minute's call. SEND A MAN TO CONGRESS WHO WILL WORK FOR, NOT AGAINST THE VETERANS.

A Do Something Congressman

Kenneth J. Gray, if elected to Congress, will do something for the people of his District. In July of 1953 Gray was elected Vice President of the Jr. Chamber of Commerce for the State of Illinois. During his year in office he traveled over 4 Thousand Miles to State board meetings and visitations to various Jaycee Chapters promoting Community projects. There were 4 new Jaycee Chapters organized under Gray during his year in office. Here is what the President of the Ill. Jr. Chamber of Commerce, who is a State Representative of the opposite political party, had to say about Gray at the conclusion of the year's work: "I know that all Illinois Jaycees join me in thanking you for your terrific contributions to the growth of our State Organization in the past year. Many of the awards we received are directly attributable to the outstanding Executive Committee, of which you are a member." Gray will command recognition in Congress of the people of Southern Illinois.

Believes in Helping Needy

Kenneth J. Gray has spent many years in doing things for the people of So. Illinois and his Community. He has served on numerous fund raising drives such as March of Dimes, Salvation Army, Red Cross, Cancer fund drives, Jaycees' Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets for the needy, Bloodmobile, etc. Gray is a licensed Auctioneer and has volunteered his services free of charge for hundreds of fund raising functions for schools, churches, civic and fraternal gatherings the past few years and has never charged for his services. Some of the time and energy Kenneth Gray has given this area is evidenced when he helped found the Walking Dog Foundation for the Blind. This is a non-profit organization formed to train Guide dogs and present them to the blind people free of charge. He has spent many hours and dollars in helping lighten the burden along the way for blind people. There are now dogs leading blind people here in Southern Illinois at the present time. All coming from this Foundation. Gray promises if elected to Congress to fight for the welfare of all the people of Southern Illinois, regardless of race, creed or political affiliation.

OTHER THINGS GRAY WILL FIGHT FOR:

A SQUARE DEAL FOR LABOR. BY—

Lowering age limit for retirement under Social Security from age 65 to age 60.
Complete new labor law, fair to both labor and management, to replace the Taft-Hartley Law.
Better Federal Mine Safety Laws. Also favor some new safety measures for Railroadmen.
Taking immediate steps to restore Coal and Fluorspar markets by raising tariff rates on Foreign Importation of Oil and Fluorspar.

IT'S TIME TO STOP LISTENING TO PROMISES AND HAVE SOME ACTION. SENIORITY OF THE PRESENT CONGRESSMAN DOESN'T MEAN A THING IF IT ISN'T PUT TO USE. THE PAST 14 YEARS OF A DO-NOTHING RECORD SPEAKS FOR ITSELF.

SEND A MAN TO CONGRESS WHO IS WILLING TO ROLL UP HIS SLEEVES AND KNOCK ON EVERY DOOR IN WASHINGTON, D. C. UNTIL SOMETHING IS DONE FOR THE PEOPLE. IT'S HIGH TIME WASHINGTON HEARS ABOUT SOUTHERN ILLINOIS.

KENNETH J. GRAY CAN DO THE JOB.

Xi Beta Omega Entertains Beta Kappa Chapter and Pledges with Dinner Party

The Xi Beta Omega chapter of Beta Sigma Phi entertained Beta Kappa chapter and pledges at a dinner party Thursday, Oct. 28. The party was in keeping with the fall and Halloween season and the basement at the home of the hostess, Mrs. James F. Moore, was decorated with pumpkins, bales of hay and corn shocks. Each card table had a green cover with a candle in a brown bean pot. The lighting was by jack-o-lanterns.

As each guest arrived she was given a number which corresponded with a number painted on a cup on the tables. The large table had an unusual centerpiece of ducks, flowers, corn and shotgun shells which was made by Mrs. James Stricklin.

There were 38 present and after dinner the guests played cards and prizes were won by Mrs. Gladys Bottomley, Beta Kappa's new social sponsor, Mrs. Robert Davenport, Miss Jeannette James and Mrs. Naida Upchurch.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Victor Humm, chairman, Mrs. Roger Johnson, Mrs. Fannie Hendrix, Mrs. James Stricklin and Mrs. Moore.

Games were played and refreshments served to the following members: Linda Schwartz, Myrna Boatright, Robin Wathen, Betty Young and the teacher, Mrs. Ingle Horn. Visitors were Mary Ann Mullinix, Sue Cox, Betty Proctor, Carl Jackson, Jerry Dowdy, John David Watson and Pvt. Dean Goolsby and Pvt. Gordon L. Dowdy, home on furlough from Camp Chaffee, Ark.

Wheel and Distaff Meets With Mrs. F. M. Sullivan

The Wheel and Distaff committee of the D. A. R. met Oct. 27 at the home of Mrs. F. M. Sullivan at which time Mrs. Chas. Ford, chairman, read a letter from the state chairman of the junior committees, Mrs. Clifford Heagler.

The committee made out its budget for the year giving approved schools $50; Helen Pauch fund $20; sending the Indian nurse a gift and placing a printed memorial in the January issue of the National D. A. R. magazine in memory of Mrs. Margaret Taylor. The committee also voted $50 to the Jaycees for the factory fund drive.

Two new members were added to the committee, Mrs. Lois Blass and Mrs. Harold Brown. Mrs. George Robertson was reinstated to membership and Mrs. Rodney Nash was a guest and a prospective member.

Members of Wheel and Distaff were asked to help with the rummage sale the chapter is sponsoring. The next meeting will be a joint affair at the home of Mrs. D. A. Lehman on Nov. 8.

Miss Phyllis Webb Has Halloween Party

Miss Phyllis Webb entertained friends Friday evening with a Halloween party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Richey.

The door prize was awarded to Jim Omohundro. Refreshments were served to the following: Carolyn Render, Joan Thomason, Shirley Stephenson, Frances Gordon, Carolyn Williams, Ruby and Clara Short, Garrett Rice, Fred Harris, Raymond Sisk, Jackie Norman, Floyd Yates and Jim Omohundro.

J. O. Milligan is now at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dunn, after being released from the Harrisburg hospital.

Congressional Campaign Closes

course... just bide your time and we'll catch up with you."

Hall cited the end of the Korean War, tax relief, reduced spending and "the two most prosperous years in the nation's history" as part of the 1953-54 Eisenhower record. Mitchell replied that reduced spending jeopardized national security, tax relief was for the rich and prosperity was not keeping pace with the nation's growth. Mitchell also challenged Republican farm policy.

In Chicago, Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) and his Republican opponent, Joseph T. Meek, took a cautious stand on Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy in a television interview Sunday night (NBC "Meet the Press"). Douglas said he would "give all sides... a fair deal" when the question of McCarthy's censure comes before the Senate next week. When Meek was asked if he would welcome McCarthy's support, he said merely that "McCarthy is a good Republican" and that he would want the support of all in that category.

Telephone Campaign

Meantime, Mr. Eisenhower had put in motion a call-your-neighbor telephone campaign to get out the vote. He called 10 Republicans and asked each to call 10 others. Project that through six groups, assuming all hands do their duty, and you've put in 10 million telephone calls. Republican National Committee headquarters said the thing was snowballing countrywide.

Mitchell's strategists countered with a "Democratic walkathon," in which he telegraphed party leaders and candidates asking each to walk to the homes of 10 persons urging election of a Democratic Congress.

President Eisenhower's campaign activity is without precedent in this country although the two Roosevelts, Theodore and F.D.E. took a considerable part in off-year campaigns. But Mr. Eisenhower has surpassed the most active of his predecessors in putting the executive branch on the stump to influence the election of the legislative branch of government.

Cuba Voters To Elect Batista

HAVANA 17—Gen. Fulgencio Batista will be confirmed as president of Cuba today in an election whose outcome is certain because his only opponent has quit the race. Ex-President Ramon Grau San Martin, the opposition candidate, withdrew his name from the ballot Saturday.

The light balloting was marred this morning when a group of unknown persons in a speeding car exchanged shots with soldiers in front of the Naval Staff headquarters. There were no casualties.

Police redoubled their security measures as rumors swept Havana that the supporters of the withdrawing candidate planned to "disturb the voting."

A-3c Donald Willard, 20, Dies in Alaska

A-3c Donald Willard, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Willard, former residents of Creal Springs but more recently in Flint, Mich., died Oct. 21 in Anchorage, Alaska, as a result of an auto accident.

The body has been returned to Creal Springs and now lies in state at the home of an aunt, Mrs. Savannah Eaton. The funeral will be Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Northern Baptist church in Creal Springs. Rev. Kenneth Trice and Rev. George Holland will officiate, and burial will be in Creal Springs with military rites.

New Blast of Wintry Air Hits Plains Section

By United Press

A wintry blast of Arctic air brought freezing temperatures as far south as Birmingham, Ala., today and snow fell in many areas around the Great Lakes.

Forecasters predicted that the weather for election day Tuesday will be:

Great Lakes and northern Plains—Cloudy and cold with some snow flurries around the lakes.

South and Southwest—Generally fair.

Northeast and New England—Stormy and rainy.

Rockies and Pacific Coast—Generally fair and rather mild.

A new surge of cold air swept the Plains today, reinforcing a cold mass that hit before the weekend.

The new front was preceded by a band of light snow which was expected to reach a depth of an inch or more throughout much of Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin. Before dawn today, the mercury sank to 18 degrees at Minot, N. D., 32 at Birmingham, 30 at Richmond, Va., 31 at Chicago, 30 at Milwaukee and 28 at Pittsburgh.

Snow piled up a half a foot deep Sunday at Erie, Pa., and Duluth, Minn., had an accumulation of three inches. There was two inches on the ground Sunday at South Bend, Ind.

At Chicago, a freezing drizzle

Sunday sheathed suburban woodlands with ice early in the day.

The Chicago Weather Bureau reported, meanwhile, that the area had a total of 12.06 inches of rain during October, the greatest on record for any month in history. The greatest previous was 11.28 inches in August, 1885.

Cotton now has surpassed even grapes and citrus fruits as a money crop in California.

Sergeant is Killed, Four Companions Hurt

CHICAGO 17—Sgt. Conrad Johnson, 29, Clinton, Mich., was killed and four companions were injured Sunday when their car failed to negotiate a curve in suburban Morton Grove. All the soldiers are stationed at Fort Sheridan, Ill.

Strike Closes 20 Decatur Schools

DECATUR, Ill. (UP) — Twenty public schools today were closed by a strike of union janitors, bus drivers and custodians.
About 65 school employees, members of Teamsters Local 279, went on strike to back their demand for a new contract.
The previous contract expired July 1.
Only six schools with automatic heating were operating today, including Decatur High School and five grade schools.

Illinois PTA, IEA Declare November 'School Crisis Month'

SPRINGFIELD (UP) — The Illinois Congress of Parent-Teachers and the Illinois Education Assn. today declared November "school crisis month" in Illinois, and planned a campaign for more money for schools.
The two groups plan to circulate petitions for more state aid for common schools, "more fair and equal assessments of local property for taxation purposes," and appropriations for school building needs.

Mothers Agree to Switch Babies Exchanged in Hospital

LONDON (UP) — Two mothers whose baby boys were exchanged in a hospital nursery have agreed against their better judgment to switch them back, at least for a "trial period," it was reported today.
The Daily Mirror front-paged a picture of Mrs. John Bowers and Mrs. Alfred Reed tearfully exchanging the infants they have learned to love, while their husbands sympathetically looked on.

Ivy Marberry Dies at Vienna

A-Plants Workers Remain on Jobs as Injunction Expires

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP)—A possible strike that would halt all production of uranium-235 for this country's atomic bomb program appeared unlikely today, at least until after further wage talks on Wednesday.

The 4,500 atomic production workers at plants here and at Paducah, Ky., remained on their jobs despite the expiration about midnight Saturday on a Taft-Hartley injunction that had held them on their jobs since August.

Even before the injunction expired Elwood Swisher, president of the CIO Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers Union, ordered them to stay on their jobs pending further talks "until I am convinced that efforts now being put forth have failed."

The 3,500 workers here and 1,000 at Paducah are seeking a 15-cent an hour pay increase while the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corp., which operates the plants for the government, has offered 6 cents. The present scale is $1.58 to $2.40 an hour.

Have You Considered the Effect of Your "Yes" Vote for The "Blue Ballo" Amendment?

Before you vote November 2 on the proposal to reapportion the legislative districts of Illinois, get the answers to these simple important questions:

1. "What benefits will it bring to me personally?"
2. "What advantages will it bring Saline County?"
3. "Will it make it easier or harder to enact good legislation for the State of Illinois?"
4. "What desirable law or laws can be more easily or more certainly enacted under a reapportionment than by the present makeup of the Legislature?"
5. "Will the redistricting give the people of Saline County greater or less representation in the General Assembly?"
6. There is not a single state in the Union whose Constitution provides that any one county shall control the House or Senate of their Legislators. Should Cook County control the House of our General Assembly?

Unless you can get satisfactory answers to these questions, would you not be wise to vote against the scheme?

This advertisement was prepared and paid for by Paul Powell in the interest of intelligent voting.

To Voters of Saline County: Please Read This Article

It has come to our attention that recently a letter was addressed to the Republican candidate for County Judge, quoting a resolution commending said Republican candidate and recommending him as a competent man for the office of Judge of our Saline County Court.

Said resolution was supposed to be passed by the Harrisburg Ministerial Association. WE ARE FURTHER INFORMED THAT AT THIS SUPPOSED MEETING THERE WERE ONLY FOUR MINISTERS PRESENT OUT OF THIRTY-FOUR THAT BELONG TO THE ASSOCIATION. One of the ministers attending was making his first appearance at the ministers' meeting. Two others were not of long standing in the association and hesitated to pass the resolution. The fourth was an older member who urged that the resolution be passed. The association is comprised of thirty-four members, therefore thirty of the thirty-four members had nothing to do with this resolution and apparently knew nothing about it. It therefore becomes apparent that such endorsements cannot possibly reflect the views of the entire association which was without the consent and approval of thirty of the good and substantial ministers of the association.

At a later meeting of the Saline County Dry Association held on Oct. 14 endorsements were again supposedly passed favoring the same mentioned candidate and also the Republican candidate for Sheriff. These two Republican candidates were invited to this meeting. The Democrat candidates for these offices were not invited. Was this fair to the Democrat candidates for the same offices?

The facts are that Trafton Dennis, the Democrat candidate for County Judge, has been an active member of the McKinley Avenue Baptist Church for 25 years. That Trafton Dennis, Democrat candidate for County Judge, has been a Sunday School teacher in said church off and on for many years and constantly for the past two years, he being away from his church 29 months while in the service of his country, 19 months of which were spent overseas in World War II.

When the said church was preparing to raise funds with which to build a new church, Trafton Dennis organized the corporation to handle the legal work in preparing the drafts of the bonds and is at the present time a trustee for the Bond holders, all of this being done to serve his church.

The facts are that William T. "Wee" Barrett, Democrat candidate for Sheriff, has worked hard for a living since his childhood, delivering groceries from the Burnett's store; worked in the coal mines; served on the Saline County Board of Supervisors for four years; served as Police Commissioner for the City of Eldorado; served on the liquor control commission for two years in Saline County; worked 3½ years as Service Officer for the Illinois Veterans Commission located at Harrisburg; served 2½ years in the service of his country and 13 months being overseas.

The President of the Dry Association states that an investigation is made of each and every candidate before he is endorsed.

Did the investigation of the Dry Association reveal the fact that Layman Jones, the Republican Candidate for Sheriff was on an active committee for the wets at the last Wet and Dry Election in the City of Eldorado which was held in April 1951?

Did this investigation reveal the fact that the different organizations in Eldorado selected certain of their members to help carry on the campaign for the wets; and did this investigation reveal the fact that these members were to work together with the former tavern owners and liquor interests to vote Eldorado wet; and did this investigation reveal the fact that the Republican candidate for Sheriff was selected from one of the organizations to work with these other members so selected in managing the campaign for the wets at this election; and did the investigation reveal the fact that the said Republican candidate did work in this capacity, actively during the campaign for the wets?

Regardless of what the association's investigation revealed about Mr. Jones the foregoing facts are supported by affidavits.

Let us be fair and honest when making endorsements. Let us be fair with our conscience when we cast our vote on Election Day.

Truck Jammed with 85 Mexicans Overturns;
Seven Dead, 60 Hurt

DEL RIO, Tex. — A huge tractor-trailer jammed with 85 Mexican migrant farm workers hit a culvert and overturned Sunday, killing seven men and injuring more than 60 others. The dead and injured were mostly pinned under the wreckage of the huge trailer. At least eight of the injured were said to be in critical condition.

The workers were being returned to their homes in northern Mexico. They had been picking cotton in the vicinity of Plainview, Tex. The truck driver, Ben Taylor, 17, told authorities he went to sleep and the truck left the highway. It straddled a small culvert and rolled over several times. Sheriff's deputies filed first degree negligent homicide charges against young Taylor. His bond was set at $500.

"I won't go to sleep," Nancy said, yawning widely. "It started at the swimming pool. I went up on the diving platform. It looked so much higher from the top. I decided to come back down the ladder. When I turned around, I saw into the cave where the creek goes in, I saw the path. Jim."

"And you immediately decided that might be a quick way to get to The Spires?"

"Not right away. But I got a little bored waiting for you. And that silly business of getting Mrs. Gelstrap into a bathing suit. Anyway you'd told me to be careful, so I simply had to be careful."

"Of course you did," Jim said. Either the sarcasm was lost on Nancy or completely ignored.

"Being careful was the reason I didn't go into the cavern from this end. If anyone had been watching it might not have been such a good idea. And after all, if the creek bed was used as a way to get to The Spires, there'd have to be an opening at the other end."

"That I can understand," Jim admitted.

"So I told everyone I was going to walk along to meet you. I walked around by the road and down to where the creek comes out, there by The Spires."

"Didn't you see the deputy?"

"I saw some man go past in an old car."

"Wasn't Miss Wister's car still parked there?"

"Yes. All locked up though. Anyway, I started wading upstream. And Jim, I left your gun on a flat rock. I didn't want it to get all wet."

"I saw it. That's the reason I knew where you'd gone."

She reached out for his hand, held it. "I didn't have any trouble ducking under the first wall and into a large sort of cave room. There was a candle burning there, Jim. A huge candle. One of those that'd burn for days and days."

Jim remembered his impression of light, just before something hit his head.

"I was glad of the light at first," Nancy went on. "I thought it was cheery, at first. And I saw the doll."

"Doll?"

"Don't yell so," Nancy complained. "Yes, there was a doll there. A big doll. It had had yellow hair once, but most of that had fallen out. And Jim, some one had ripped the doll's body open, pinned it back together with safety pins. I guess that was so they could put the money, the letter and the diamond bracelet inside."

Nancy yawned sleepily. "Twenty thousand dollars," Nancy said. "I had plenty of time to count it. The bracelet probably cost seven or eight thousand. You know, Jim, I've never seen a thousand-dollar bill before."

Married to a detective, you probably won't again."

"I got scared, Jim. Well, I guess you'll say it's silly. But the doll was lying down when I found it. It seemed to have been tossed where it was. The eyes were closed. Jim, I was reading the letter when I got that feeling someone was watching me. I looked around and the doll's eyes were open. Oh, I know you'll say I moved the doll, and I did of course. But it frightened me, Jim. Maybe it was because I felt guilty about reading the letter anyway. The parts of it I could read. Water hadn't done it any good, Jim."

Dunn fought down his impatience. "The letter, Nancy. What did it say?"

"It was from Angelica's husband," Nancy said slowly. "I can't remember all the words, but I can give you its sense. It said he didn't still didn't approve of what Angelica was doing. He had a bad feeling about it, but anything she wanted to do was all right with him. He—he loves—loved her, Jim. And he wanted to know how soon she'd come back to him, how soon she would be able to collect the money she felt was due her. He said he didn't want the money, Jim. He—he wanted Angelica."

Jim Dunn drew in a deep breath. Pieces clicked into place. Angelica's actions in returning to the Carlsons were explained clearly now. Her husband's career had been injured. Angelica intended to retrieve losses. Certainly, as a Carlson woman, she had had training along certain lines. Sure evidence of that lay in the $20,000, amassed somehow from the Carlsons in the period of one year. Certainly it explained Angelica's desperate attempts to regain the doll.

"Finally I got up nerve enough to try ducking through the upstream hole. I figured I couldn't be too far from the upper opening. There—there were round stones in the way. They moved a little when I pushed at them, but I couldn't get through the opening. I climbed back out of the water in that candlelit hole, along with the doll. I decided finally I'd go back the way I'd come. And then, I thought I saw something. Some horrible thing was coming up thru the water. I—I threw a rock at it and it went away."

Jim's fingers strayed to the lump on his head in an unconscious gesture. He did not realize what he had done until he saw Nancy's horrified and stricken look of understanding.

"Jim, it wasn't you—"

"James Horrible Thing Dunn," he admitted. "You throw too straight. And, for a damsel in distress, I must say you were unappreciative."

Poison Warning To Nixon Believed
Halloween Prank

SEATTLE, Wash. —A laboratory analysis of a supper which Vice President Richard M. Nixon ordered in his hotel room here Saturday night showed today that it contained no poison.

An anonymous caller telephoned Nixon Saturday evening and warned him his supper had been poisoned. When his meal arrived at his room in the Benjamin Franklin hotel, Secret Service agents took it away to be analyzed.

Nixon said before his departure

Attend Funeral of Brother-in-Law
Of Jake O'Toole

for Denver Sunday on his campaign tour that he believed the warning was the work of a Halloween prankster. Authorities were unable to trace the call which came from outside the hotel.

Secret Service agents, who supervised preparation of a second supper for Nixon Saturday night, questioned several hotel employees, but no one was held.

Highways are slanted at curves, or banked, because centrifugal force would turn an automobile over if it were driven around a flat curve at high speed.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake O'Toole returned this morning from Attica, Ind., where they were called last Saturday by the sudden death of Mr. O'Toole's brother-in-law, Ed Hidy, 66, a well-known florist who died Saturday morning at his home.

The funeral was held Tuesday at the Methodist church in Attica.

VOTERS - - - FRIENDS

In making my campaign for the office of County Treasurer of Saline County, I have continued my acquaintance with many friends and have met many new ones. I have, however, met some people who were not acquainted with me and my family, and I give herewith a brief biography for the benefit of those who do not know me.

I was born in Harrisburg, the son of Jesse and Clara Hutchison Cannon. My father was killed while working at Wasson I mine in 1939.

Charles (Buck) Cannon, owner of Midway Bar-B-Q, is my brother. I have three sisters—Mrs. James (Mary) Hindmarsh; Jane Cannon, employed by The Daily Register; and Norma Cannon, employed at the Junior High

I was graduated from the Harrisburg Township High school in 1933.

I was married in 1938 to the former Helen McGuire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harve McGuire of Harrisburg, and we have one son, Edwin, a 4th grade pupil at McKinley School.

I am a member of the McKinley Avenue Baptist church, where I take an active part in all its program, having been music director for the past eight years and a Sunday school class teacher for the past 19 years.

I have been employed for the past 14 years as Pepsi Cola distributor in this area.

I believe the office of County Treasurer is one with much responsibility and many people to whom service is to be rendered. I feel that I am capable and worthy of the position of trust, and hope that you will give me an opportunity to prove my ability and honesty as your next County Treasurer.

If elected, I WILL BE IN THE OFFICE seeing to it that each of you receive the same courteous respect.

I am running on the record of my past and present life, and on that basis solicit, and will appreciate your vote.

My Campaign in the Primary Election was fair and honest, and I still have the respect and friendship of those whom I ran against for the nomination.

My Campaign in this General Election has been fair and honest, and I want you to know that what I have done, or said will stand the light of day upon it.

I have traveled over most of Saline County, and have met many people in this General Election Campaign. I have been treated with courtesy and respect by those whom I have met. For this fair and courteous treatment, I sincerely thank the people of Saline County.

I want you to vote tomorrow.

I repeat once again that you should vote for the candidate for Sheriff whose record shows him to be best qualified for this important office.

I believe, that if you have investigated, and know the truth, that you will vote for me.

Pay Tribute to Wilbur Shaw, Victim Of Plane Crash

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — Drivers and auto racing officials paid tribute today to Wilbur Shaw, three-time winner of the 500-mile Indianapolis Memorial Day race, who died in a weekend plane crash.

"I don't know how he can be replaced," said Tony Bettenhausen, former national driving champion.

Anton Hulman, owner of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway of which Shaw was president and general manager, said the auto and racing world lost a "dynamic constructive and aggressive character whose heart and soul were in doing something for other people."

Shaw, one of only two men to win the 500-mile classic three times, died when the light plane in which he was a passenger crashed in a snowstorm near Decatur, Ind. He would have been 52 Sunday.

Artist Ernest Roose, a longtime friend, and Ray Grimes, charter pilot of the plane, were killed with Shaw.

SIU Defeats Eastern 20-6 for First Victory

By United Press
Michigan Normal rolled over Western Illinois 33-19 to tighten its hold on first place in the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

Defending champion Central Michigan helped the league leaders by dropping Illinois Normal to its first defeat, 26-0, in another Saturday game.

Bob Middlekauff passed for five touchdowns as Michigan Normal improved its conference mark to four wins without defeat.

Ray Person tallied from 30 yards out, and Bob De Vries and Bill Lenny scored on short plunges for Western Illinois, which suffered its first defeat in two conference starts.

Jim Podoley returned a punt for 60 yards, and Central Michigan intercepted two passes and blocked a punt in downing Illinois Normal, which now owns a 2-1 mark.

In a third conference game, Southern Illinois whipped Eastern Illinois 20-6 for its first victory in a year. Southern's last victory also was over Eastern, just a year ago Saturday.

Northern Illinois lost to Omaha 26-7 in a non-conference game at De Kalb. Ron Hicks passed 13 yards to Gary Scholz for Northern's only touchdown.

HTHS Freshmen Beat Eldorado, 20-6

Harrisburg freshmen defeated the Eldorado freshmen, 20 to 6, on the Eldorado field Saturday morning.

The locals scored three touchdowns and made two more points on a safety, when an Eldorado man was tackled in his end zone.

Donald Biggs made two of the Harrisburg touchdowns, Bob Clark the other.

Final frosh game will be at West Frankfort Wednesday night.

Equality Opens Cage Play Tomorrow Night at Enfield; Three Starters Back

With three members of last year's starting quintet back for another season of hardwood wars, Equality's Cardinals should develop into a tough ball club with plenty of opposition for all opponents. The Cards open their season tomorrow night at Enfield.

Equality this year joins with Shawneetown, Ridgway and Galatia as a member of the Greater Egyptian conference. The Cardinals replaced Brookport which indicated last winter it would not be a member this season.

A. L. "Kayo" Willis, who coached the Cards through most of the 1953-54 season, will again direct the team. And this year Equality will be playing home games in a new gymnasium. Following the destruction of their old gym in June 1953, the high school was forced to use the grade school gym all last season.

Seven Are Seniors
Kenneth Wooley, Ray Crayne and Eddie Kaufmann are the three returning first stringers around whom Coach Willis will build his squad. Willis would have had a fourth member, but Junior Woods moved to Eldorado last spring. Graduation took veterans Barney Barnett, Cletus Butler and Gene Frohock.

Last year's reserves who are scrapping for the two starting berths are Edgar Joyner, George Teegarden, Ronnie Milligan, Marshall Glover and Allen Porter. Gerald Glover has joined the squad this year and is also a potential starter.

Seven of the nine men Coach Willis is now carrying on the first team are seniors and the other two are juniors. Crayne is the tallest, towering 6'4", but Wooley is probably the most experienced. He led the team in scoring last year.

Foresees Better Year
Equality has carded 13 GE conference tussles. They will play each conference school twice with the exception of Vienna, which they meet just once. The Cardinals will again be host to the annual Equality Invitational Tournament early in December. The eight-team affair will see Jopla, Royalton, Enfield, Mills Prairie and Crab Orchard present in addition to all three Gallatin county schools.

With overall more experience and slightly more height, Coach Willis foresees a better year for the Cards. They won only eight of 25 games last year.

Clear Sailing Ahead for Oklahoma; Ohio State, UCLA Face Rough Games

By United Press
There's clear sailing in the offing for three of the nation's six unbeaten and untied major powers but the worst is yet to come for UCLA, Ohio State and Cincinnati.

Barring upsets that would rival anything the topsy-turvy season already has offered, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Miami, Fla., should continue unscathed past teams which have a combined season's record of 36 wins and 30 losses. Only one of the trio's 11 future opponents has escaped with fewer than two losses and two of the teams are under .500 for the year.

Oklahoma, which beat Colorado, 13-6, for its sixth straight victory on Saturday, meets Iowa State (3-4) next weekend and then goes against Missouri (3-3), Nebraska (4-2) and Oklahoma A and M (3-3-1) on successive Saturdays.

Arkansas, still unbeaten after a 14-7 triumph over Texas A and M, takes on Rice (4-2), SMU (3-2-1), LSU (2-5) and Houston (3-2), while Miami, which butchered Fordham, 75-7, Friday night, meets Auburn (4-3). Alabama (4-2-1) and Florida (4-3). Betting on any of those underdogs would be like risking money on Army's black and blue Knights of the Hudson against the Detroit Lions.

No Soft Touches

There are no soft pickings in prospect, however, for UCLA, Ohio State and Cincinnati, whose combined opponents have a season's record of 41 victories and only 13 defeats.

UCLA, 27-6 victor over California last Saturday, shouldn't have too much trouble next weekend with an Oregon team which has lost three of its seven games. But then the Uclans run into a real tough one on Nov. 20 when they take on Southern California (6-1), the Pacific Coast Conference's likely representative in the Rose Bowl.

Ohio State, which downed stubborn Northwestern, 14-7, for victory No. 6, still must hurdle upset-conscious Pittsburgh (3-3) in addition to such Big 10 powers as Purdue and Michigan. Pittsburgh has beaten Navy, Northwestern and West Virginia in succession while Purdue is 4-1-1 and Michigan 4-2 for the season.

More Upsets

Cincinnati, which slipped past College of Pacific, 13-7, for its seventh straight, goes on to play Arizona State (5-2), Wichita (5-1) and Miami of Ohio (6-0).

Saturday's latest wave of upsets included Iowa's 13-7 triumph over seventh-ranked Wisconsin and claimed four of the nation's previously-unbeaten and untied major powers. Boston University bounced Bucknell from the honor scroll 20-7, Xavier (Ohio) upset Boston College, 13-10, and William and Mary tied Virginia Tech, 7-7.

Other national powers which had their troubles were Notre Dame, which tripped Navy, 6-0; Army, which shaded Virginia, 21-20, and Duke, which slipped past Georgia Tech, 21-20. Southern California, the nation's No. 9 team, romped over Oregon State, 34-0, meanwhile, eighth-ranked Purdue beat Illinois, 28-14. Yale defeated Dartmouth, 13-7, and Penn State walloped Pennsylvania, 35-13.

To The Voters of Saline County

This is my answer to the mud slinging of the Saline County Democratic Central Committee:

1. I am proud that the Saline County Dry Association endorsed me for Sheriff of Saline County.

2. I repeat the pledge I made to you:

- I will not tolerate the illegal sale of beer, whisky or any other intoxicating liquor in Saline County.
- I will not tolerate the operation of slot machines or any other gambling device in Saline County.
- I will investigate on my own initiative to determine whether the above laws are being violated and I will conduct raids and make arrests to enforce those laws.

3. I am proud to acknowledge the support of the law abiding and God-fearing people of Saline County and I shall do all in my power to live up to the confidence they have placed in me.

4. The so called affidavits referred to in the attempt to smear me were signed by a former tavern operator and a beer distributor. I am proud to know they are both against me.

Party Rallies End Campaign in County

ting underway at 8 p. m. Previously a $5-a-plate fund-raising dinner was held at the American Legion home, with Sen. Long speaking there also.

A third phase of the Democratic campaign in Saline county was the appearance of Kenneth Gray, who is the candidate for congress on the Democratic ticket, and his caravan. The caravan toured both Saline and Gallatin county Saturday afternoon.

Labeling the present administration as one for the "vested interests" and one with a record of "broken promises," Senator Long charged that big business was favored over small business in legislative matters, that the new tax program was written to favor the large wage earner and in reality resulted in the average wage earner paying more taxes, with the increase in social security payments being higher than the decrease in personal income taxes.

Rep. Paul Powell, Kenneth Gray, congressional candidate, Ed Merchant, candidate for state senator and all county candidates spoke in behalf of their candidacy.

Steve Mitchell, chairman of the Saline county Democratic committee, was general chairman of the two meetings. Dr. N. A. Thompson was master of ceremonies at the dinner, attended by approximately 125, and Mayor John Upchurch introduced the candidates. At the city hall City Judge Harry Flanders introduced the candidates.

Republican Rally

The Republicans held a rally Saturday night at the court house, which was packed to hear Glen O. Jones, nominee for state senator, review Republican accomplishments during the past 20 months under President Eisenhower, and reply to Democratic critics of the administration.

Jones produced charts on unemployment and farm prices to support his contention that only during wartime have the Democratic administrations given the nation prosperity, and that present conditions are better than they have been under Democrats during peacetime.

Champaign Man Is Arrested for FHA Violations

SPRINGFIELD — Theodore J. Venable, 35, former Champaign builder charged with violating the Federal Housing Act, today was bound over to the U. S. District Court at Danville and freed under $1,500 bond.

Venable appeared for arraignment before U. S. Commissioner William B. Chittenden.

Venable was arrested Friday night by FBI agents at his residence here. He had been working as a salesman for a housing improvement company. He was charged with filing false Federal Housing Administration papers.

He formerly headed the Champaign Construction Co., a firm put on a list by the Federal Housing Administration district director last April, warning bankers to use caution in making loans to which the listed firms were a party.

A federal warrant issued at Danville, Ill., federal court charged Venable with presenting, on or about July 24, 1953, a false FHA "completion certificate and other related papers to a credit institution, knowing that these false documents would be presented to the FHA for insurance purposes."

the Saline County Republican Central committee, presided at this meeting and at a final organization meeting, also held at the court house, Sunday afternoon.

There were a number of speeches, with Cong. C. W. Bishop reviewing his own accomplishments as a member of congress, especially his actions in securing industry for southern Illinois, and urging the continuation of Eisenhower's program by electing Republican senators and congressmen.

Supreme Court Asked to Rule on Pay For Employees' Time Off for Voting

SPRINGFIELD — An Illinois Supreme Court test was pending today to determine whether Illinois employers must pay workers for time they take from their jobs to vote on election day.

The law in question says workers shall be entitled to two hours off, without deduction of wages, if they apply for the time off before election day. The employer may specify the hours. Violations are punishable by a fine of $50 to $300.

In 1923, the high court upheld an 1891 law requiring employers to give their help up to two hours off to vote. But it invalidated a portion of the law which said there should be no pay deduction for the time off.

Now, the Supreme Court has been asked to reverse its 31-year-old position and rule that employees shall be paid for time used in voting. A decision is not expected until early in 1955, however.

Forty-five employees of Benjamin Electric Manufacturing Co., Des Plaines, initiated the case by filing suit for $193 pay for time they used in voting Nov. 4, 1952.

The employees won their case before Cook County Circuit Judge Harry M. Fisher last June 2. The company appealed to the Supreme Court.

The company relies heavily on the Supreme Court's 1923 decision voiding the part of the 1891 law requiring payment to employees for time used voting.

This law was re-enacted in 1933 and 1943 despite the 1923 ruling.

SALINE COUNTY

TO THE VOTERS OF SALINE COUNTY

The Saline County Dry Association is made up of volunteer members from all parts of Saline County. The meetings are publicly announced, held in public places and open to all who will attend.

The purpose of the organization is to fairly and impartially investigate the records of all candidates for public office and recommend to the public those who appear to be best qualified and dependable for law enforcement on liquor sales, gambling, and general moral issues, regardless of their political affiliations. The organization is neither political, denominational or sectarian. The members are honest, upright, law-abiding citizens who have the courage to stand on their moral convictions.

The growing strength and influence of the Saline County Dry Association as demonstrated in past elections has become a matter of concern to the "Wets" and they will do anything to confuse the public.

We have pledges, given upon their word of honor, in the presence of a large number of witnesses, from Layman Jones and George B. Lee that if elected to the respective offices to which they aspire they will faithfully and honestly enforce the laws to the best of their ability. Upon this pledge, and with no reason to doubt their honor and WITH FULL KNOWLEDGE OF THEIR PAST RECORDS we have endorsed these men and we are standing by our guns.

If the Dry, law-abiding people of Saline county will only take time to examine, without prejudice, the record of each candidate before voting Tuesday, November 2 then the purpose of our organization will have been accomplished.

THE ISSUE IS IN THE HANDS OF THE FREE AMERICAN VOTERS AND WE THANK GOD FOR THE PRIVILEGE OF DECIDING IT THAT WAY.
